

Delphine Barthes appointed as Head of Operations

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Delphine Barthes as Head of Operations. Delphine will lead two of our Business Units to further stimulate growth and enhance value creation.

Prior to joining Edelris, Delphine was Strategic Marketing Senior Vice President within the Solvay group where she built the Strategic Anticipation & Marketing vision and carried out the Strategic Roadmap throughout the group. During her career, Delphine has successfully delivered growth across various responsibilities, BU head, Operations Director, Strategy and Innovation in leading international companies in the pharmaceutical, cosmetics and nutrition sectors.

Commenting on her appointment, Delphine said:

“I am delighted to be joining Edelris at such a promising time. I am convinced that I can use my experience to contribute to the company’s endeavors in developing high value services in drug discovery. Edelris is a recognized leader in Hit generation and medicinal chemistry and I am thrilled to build upon these assets to make further progress towards better solutions for our clients.”

“It is with enormous pleasure that we welcome Delphine in our leadership team,” said Jean-Yves Ortholand, Chief Executive Officer of Edelris. “Her impressive and successful track record—will be invaluable to us as we continue to strengthen our portfolio of offers to provide enhanced services for our customers”
